Renee Mobbs, Esq.

Renee is a native Vermonter. She grew up in Burlington and Hinesburg, and attended CVU, St. Michael's College, and Vermont Law School. She majored in English at St. Mike's and was the Valedictorian of the class of 2005. In 2009, Renee graduated cum laude from VLS with a Certificate in General Practice. Renee is now a Director and Shareholder at Sheehey Furlong & Behm P.C. in Burlington, where her practice focuses on real estate and business transactional matters, banking/financial services, and healthcare law.

Renee is pleased to support and serve the VT Bar Foundation (VBF) because, representing mostly business clients, she does not often get the opportunity to assist low-income Vermonters with their legal needs. Serving on the VBF Board is a high-level way to contribute to and support access to justice for all Vermonters, regardless of status, position or ability to pay.

Renee has been a member of the Access to Justice Campaign Committee supporting the Poverty Law Fellowship since 2018, and is the incoming President of the VBF Board of Directors for 2021-2022.
