OUR STORY

The VBF, the state's only foundation solely dedicated to the legal services community, is laser-focused on increasing access to justice for Vermonters who are low-income, underserved, or marginalized.

We got our start in 1982, and have since raised and distributed more than $27 million to more than 60 deserving organizations ranging from legal aid providers to law school clinics and domestic violence prevention programs.

The VBF also raises money to support the work of the Poverty Law Fellow. The Poverty Law Fellowship is a two-year, highly competitive program that provides a gifted early-career attorney an opportunity to concentrate on challenges related to access to justice. The work of the Fellows has improved the lives of hundreds of Vermont families and individuals.

OUR MEMBERS

The VBF has over 3,000 members and advocates. Our members include all lawyers licensed to practice law in Vermont, as well as judges and justices. In addition, we have non-attorney support throughout the state.

Our members are top decision-makers who serve as advisors to large and small businesses and organizations.

CASE FOR SUPPORT

Poverty and injustice hurt. They hurt children, families, and entire communities. Through our grants, educational programs, and the Poverty Law Fellowship, the Vermont Bar Foundation works to expand resources that help Vermonters overcome these barriers and regain a sense of stability in their lives.

Please join us by making a donation and/or becoming a sponsor today, so that the Vermont Bar Foundation can continue to do important work through our Poverty Law Fellowship, grant programs and civic engagement activities.
